

RUIN MENACES MANY PAPERS

Proposed War Tax Is Severe Blow, Says President of Publishers' Assn.

Chicago, Ill., May 11.—The proposed war tax bill threatens the ruin of many newspapers by forcing them to suspend publication, and is a severe blow to the entire newspaper industry, said Hopewell L. Rogers, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association. He said many publishers are on their way to Washington to attempt to procure fair treatment for their business and would cooperate with E. E. Baker, chairman of the legislative committee of the association.

Newspapers Already Suffering.
In connection with the proposed increase in newspaper postage, Mr. Rogers said:
"It is difficult to understand the policy of the government, not only in the matter of increasing postage, but also in putting so great a tax on business in any form, and particularly in placing so heavy a tax on the newspaper business, which has been probably more severely affected in the last year through increased prices than any other industry."

In time of war they suffer particularly, owing to the enormously increased expenses due to the gathering of war news and the increased circulation for increased circulation means increased expense.

Most Papers Face Financial Crisis.
"In the last year most of the newspapers in the country have been compelled to increase their subscription price of their papers, as well as their advertising rates, in an attempt to obtain earnings sufficient to carry on their business. Newspapers in normal times seldom increase their advertising rates fast enough to keep up with the increased cost of increased circulation and the last year has seen most papers facing a severe financial crisis."

Will Close Many Papers.
"In spite of these facts, the new revenue bill proposes an increase in postal rates which are particularly unfair as to the first zone, a tax of 10 percent on print paper imported, and, I understand, a tax on advertising receipts—any one of which would

ALLIES SMASH BULGAR LINES IN NEW AND VIOLENT ATTACK

LONDON, Eng., May 11.—Furious assaults virtually over the entire Bulgarian line in Macedonia by the allied forces are reported in a Bulgarian official report issued Thursday. The report claims the repulse of all attacks but says the most violent artillery action is proceeding day and night.

In the neighborhood of Makova, about 12 miles northeast of Monastir, the Bulgarians say a vigorous attack was opened after a heavy bombardment, but collapsed with heavy losses. It was followed by another attack which the report says was completely shattered.

Further to the east, the allies assaulted Bulgarian lines in the direction of Stravina and Gradishnitsa, but all attacks, according to Sofia, were repulsed.

British Claim Gains.
Attacking on a front of about four miles in the Lake Doiran region of Macedonia, British troops on one wing took Teutonic trenches on a front of two miles and on the other flank advanced on a front of about a mile, according to a British official communication issued last night.

German Counterattacks Repulsed.
Berlin, Germany, May 11.—Heavy fighting continues on the Macedonian front, the war office reports. In a most bitter struggle yesterday, the statement says, the Germans and Bulgarians maintained all their positions.

Serbs Capture Trenches.
Salonika, May 11.—Advanced trenches in the neighborhood of Dobropolye, on the Macedonian front, have been captured by the Serbians. A Serbian official statement issued today, reports this success.

JOFFRE REVIEWS WEST POINTERS

Wipe out all the profits of most newspapers even in normal times, and at such times as these will tend to cause the discontinuance of publication of many newspapers and force out of employment many men especially trained for this work and whose value in other lines is comparatively small.

"The newspapers fully realize the seriousness of the present situation, and appreciate that they must bear their share of the burden, but the provisions of this proposed bill seem more severe on newspapers than on any other line of business."

TEXAN PROTESTS AT THE BIG TAXES PROPOSED

the next harvest, with no economy in consumption, North America, even with the loss in winter wheat, can give our allies 400,000,000 bushels of cereals of one kind or another.

"But to protect our consumers from today and to legitimately expand our exports to our allies without breaking into our own necessary food, the government must have widest and absolutely immediate powers."

WEST POINTERS Marshal and Others of Mission Visit Washington's Headquarters.

New York, May 11.—The third day of the visit of marshal Joffre, M. Viviani and other distinguished members of the French war commission, saw a diminution of the warlike welcome extended by the people of New York.

After two days of swift rides in motor cars, always through streets packed with humanity shouting roars of good will, marshal Joffre escaped from the crowds this morning for a trip to Newburgh, N. Y., where, as the guest of the state, he visited the headquarters of Gen. Washington. From Newburgh the marshal went to West Point and reviewed the cadet battalion. He will return to New York this evening for the banquet, the crowning event of the city's welcome to the members of the French and British commissions.

Members of a third war commission, that from Italy, reached this country yesterday. They will go to Washington in a few days.

Must Have Alamo-Lorraine.
Three dramatic events which will become historic in the annals of New York, marked the activities of the French mission yesterday. They were:

The address of M. Viviani at a luncheon of the Merchants' association, when he declared France never would cease fighting until Alamo and Lorraine were restored to her.

The placing by marshal Joffre of a wreath upon the sarcophagus of Gen. Grant.

The reception to the French residents of the city at the public library last night when Joffre, Viviani and their colleagues greeted their compatriots, including several hundred blue-jackets from French warships.

Ceremony at Grant's Tomb.
The spectacle which appealed most to the popular imagination was that enacted at Grant's tomb. There was an impressive stillness among the many thousands of spectators as marshal Joffre alighted from his automobile and walked slowly along the wide pavement leading to the tomb.

The memorable words of the man whose ashes have long reposed within, carved in the granite above the tomb a grateful nation gave him seemed once again to echo their solemn admonition: "Let us have peace!"

That this thought, although possibly remote of achievement, was in the mind of Gen. Joffre, was evidenced by the tears that glistened in his kind eyes.

Here was a tribute of one of the world's greatest heroes to the memory of another, which was unmistakably genuine and sincere.

Thousands Wound With Bare Heads.
The thousands who had paused in their daily duties to honor the victor of the Marne and his colleagues, apparently realized the significance of the moment. Where there had been a veritable canopy of small flags fluttering above them, now were bare heads.

Joffre, the soldier, Viviani, the statesman, Chocheprat, the admiral, de Chambrun, the nobleman, descendant of Lafayette, all were visibly affected.

Places Wreath on Coffin.
Passing into the dimly lighted rotunda of the tomb, marshal Joffre doffed his cap and advanced silently toward the stairway leading to the sarcophagus. He clambered over a stone balustrade, mounted a stepladder, and with one hand resting on the huge coffin of Gen. Grant, placed there with his other hand the evergreen wreath with the tri-color entwining it, then standing erect, he saluted, while the hundred or more others who had been permitted to enter the tomb looked on, hands uncovered, from the balustrade above.

Reviews Seventh New York.
Then followed a review of the Seventh regiment, New York national guard, in front of the tomb, after which the visitors were taken through Riverside Drive to the Joan of Arc statue, where a brief stop was made. All along the route, extending several miles, were great throngs of cheering men, women and children.

$10,000 for Charity.
At the Join of Arc statue, a delegation from the Daughters of the American Revolution presented marshal Joffre with a check for $10,000 to be used at his discretion for charitable purposes.

A wreath of white laurel was handed to marshal Joffre and he placed it reverently at the base of the statue while the crowd stood silent.

British Mission to New York.
Washington, D. C., May 11.—The British mission left here today on a special train for a three day welcome and reception in New York City, in which they join the French mission.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER PROHIBITION.
Washington, D. C., May 11.—Prohibition advocates in the house today agreed on a committee to consider and report on some form of prohibition as an agreement to urge upon congress at the present session. The committee consists of representatives Randall, California, prohibition chairman; Howard N. Crisp, Georgia, king, Colorado, Democrats; Cooper, Ohio, and Kankin, Montana, Republicans, and Kelly, Pennsylvania, Independent.

SWEDEN FURTHER LIMITS THE SALE OF LIQUOR.
Stockholm, Sweden, May 11.—Sweden has taken a further step in the restriction of the sale of alcoholic beverages. Under a law effective January 1, 1918, every consumer of liquor will have to be equipped with a pass book in which his purchases will be entered.

Private saloons will also be abolished.

GERMAN MAIL SERVICES OVER SEAS DISCONTINUED.
Berlin, Germany, May 11.—Owing to the lack of safe overseas routes the German mail service to Spain, Mexico, South America, Central America and the Orient was discontinued today.
